

PRINCESS PATTERN

A daily guide to cruise activities

COLLEGE FJORD • SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2006 • DIAMOND PRINCESS
Sunrise 7:10am • Sunset 7:59pm • Tonight's dress: Formal

Let Us Entertain You!

Diamond Princess boasts a vastly talented cast of 22 entertainers plus 30 musicians, all under the expert guidance of Cruise Director JJ Ullrich. Continuing our tradition of developing elaborate productions which offer the most unique entertainment at sea, the show "Piano Man" highlights the melodic sounds of keyboard luminaries, Undercover, features Spies and Super Sleuths. Outstanding bands and cabaret acts add to the variety throughout the ship, including the brand new Club Fusion. Never has so much variety and exciting options been offered afloat!

Captain's Circle Hospitality Desk

Atrium, Deck 5

Office Hours: 2:00pm to 6:00pm. If you have 150 days at sea or more with Princess, P&O or Silmar lines, please come and register with Wanda at the Princess Captain Circle hospitality desk located on Deck 5 in the Atrium. You may be the winner for our Most Traveled Passenger Award!

3:00pm - Princess Grapevine

Wine connoisseurs and wine enthusiasts are invited to a wine tasting in the International Dining Room on Deck 6 Aft. Come sample selected wines from the renowned cellars of the Diamond Princess. Enjoy wine tasting in a casual atmosphere for only $9.50. To avoid lining up for this popular event, why not register at the Grapevine Hospitality Desk, Horizon Court Deck 14 anytime between 10:00am and 2:00pm.

Passenger Viral Gastroenteritis Advisory

As many of you may have seen in the media, a significant increase in the number of viral gastroenteritis [Norwalk Virus or NLV] outbreaks has been experienced on cruise ships in the Northern Hemisphere and the greater continental USA, particularly on the eastern seaboard. As requested to cruise lines by the C.D.C recently, we wish to reinforce the essential importance of hand washing procedures [20 seconds minimum with soap under warm running water], and reporting to the Medical Centre immediately [by calling 911] at the FIRST sign of any symptoms [i.e.: fever/body aches/diarrhea/vomiting/headaches/chills/abdominal cramps/"heartburn"]. As is policy with Princess, there is no charge for any treatment aboard when a diagnosis of gastroenteritis is reached. Please be assured that the C.D.C and U.S.P.H. recommended precautionary and sanitation procedures are being closely followed aboard this vessel. For further details, please refer to the letter given to you by your stateroom steward on embarkation day.

FROM THE NAVIGATOR

After departure from Whittier last night, Diamond Princess set various courses transiting Passage Canal and entering Port Wells. Early this morning we will pass Point Pakenham and enter College Fjord with the speed and distance traveled in the Fjord much dependant on the ice conditions that we will encounter. On arriving at the north end of College Fjord a beautiful view of Harvard Glacier is showing up. At this point we will be reaching the most north latitude of our cruise, 61°16.6' North. We will leave the Fjord at approximately 9:00am and make our way for Bligh Reef Pilot Station within Prince William Sound to disembark our two Southwest Alaskan Pilots at around noon. On rounding Cape Hinchinbrook on our port side we will enter the Gulf of Alaska setting a southeasterly course towards Cape Spencer pilot station.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

Did you forget to order your flowers? It's not too late! Send something special this cruise from our onboard florists. They will be displaying their fresh flowers on Deck 7 Midships adjacent to the Explorers Lounge from 10:00am-Noon and 4:00pm-6:00pm. Order forms are available at the Passenger Services Desk on Deck 6.

ALASKA CRUISE COMPANION HIGHLIGHTS

Today is Southbound Day Two in The Alaska Cruise Companion, a unique book/map guide, available in our Boutiques On Board. Highlights: The Hidden Jewel - see pp. 239-259.

MEDICAL CENTRE

The Medical Center is situated on Deck 4. Access via the central Atrium elevator and stairs. Office Hours Today: 10:00am-12Noon & 4:30pm-6:30pm. For urgent medical attention please dial 911.
